A Polish Reflection on this week's Gospel

Jesus says in today's Gospel that He came to earth to bring rather division than peace. These words probably shock many of us, because this is not the image of Jesus we have in our minds. But He came to this world to tell the truth about a loving God, about us and about this world. And this truth can be hard to receive and accept. This does not mean, however, that we are not to proclaim it lovingly to other people. For just as God assured Jeremiah, He also assures us that if we will proclaim His truth, He will protect us from our enemies.

Jezus mówi w dzisiejszej ewangelii, że przyszedł na ziemię by przynieść raczej rozłam, aniżeli pokój. Te słowa zapewne szokują wielu z nas, dlatego że nie taki obraz Pana Jezusa mamy w naszych głowach. Ale on przyszedł właśnie po to na ten świat, aby powiedzieć prawdę o kochającym Bogu, o nas a także o tym świecie, a prawda czasem jest trudna do przyjęcia i zaakceptowania. Nie znaczy to jednak, że nie mamy jej głosić z miłością innym ludziom. Bo tak jak Bóg zapewniał Jeremiasza, tak i nas zapewnia, że jeżeli odważnie będziemy głosić Jego prawdę, On nas ochroni przed naszymi wrogami.

The Lighter Side — Triple Dose !

Late one night a robber wearing a mask stopped a well-dressed man and stuck a gun in his ribs. "Give me your money," he demanded.

Scandalized, the man replied, "You can't do this – I'm a TD in Dail Eireann!" "Oh! In that case," smiled the robber, "Give me MY money!"

A fat guy and a thin guy meet face to face.

Fat guy: "When I see you, I'd think a famine broke out!"

Thin guy: "And when I see you, I'd think you're the one responsible for that!"

I got a really cute dog and called him Threemiles.

It sounds great to say I walk Threemiles twice a day.
