Let us remember in our prayers recently deceased, Irish-born Auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, David O'Connell who died in tragic circumstances recently. Ordained for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 1979, Bishop David, a Cork man, served in a variety of pastoral capacities down through the years in what are regarded as challenging suburbs of the city. He was highly respected and deeply loved by the people of the archdiocese for his sense of prayer, vocation and service among all blessed to have known him. In the days ahead, we lift up to the Lord, Bishop David's family, relatives, friends, and the people of Los Angeles in the days ahead. Ar Dheis De go raibh a anam.
